Spring 2024 Course Offerings

Welcome to NMT Community Education

New Mexico Tech is committed to offering courses that stimulate the mind and body. Community Education offers courses that cultivate your creative side as well as physical activity.

We thank you for taking time out of your week to join us, taking a break from your busy schedule reduces stress and rejuvenates the mind, body and spirit.

Please take a look at the courses being offered for the Spring 2024 semester!

Tuition and Fees

One Credit hour classes are for degree seeking students, employees and senior students age 65+.

Seniors may take up to six credit hours each semester for $5.00 per credit hour with associated fees. For example:

Yoga 1 credit hour $5.00

Lab Fee $15.00

Bond Retirement Fee $7.50

Technology Support Fee $14.00

$41.50 total cost

Employees are encouraged to take Community Education Courses and are able to take advantage of 3 credit hours per semester after 6 months of continuous employment. A tuition waiver is available on the NMT.EDU Website. It must be signed by the student, supervisor and returned to Human Resources. The employee is responsible for paying lab and administrative fees. Such as Bond Retirement Fee and Technology Support Fees.

Non Degree Seeking Students age 18 to 64 years and not associated with NMT by employment, dependent of Faculty, or Staff are encouraged to take Community Education Non Credit Courses. These courses are offered for a Flat Rate Fee for zero Credit.

If you see a course you wish to take that is not offered for no credit please contact ginese.vigil@nmt.edu to inquire if there is availability.

Days, Times, Locations and Course offerings are subject to change Or cancelation due to enrollment and space availability.

Music Classes $145.00—$150.00 per semester
