15. SCOPE OF SERVICES - Background

15.1 New Mexico Tech is a state-supported, coeducational institution offering undergraduate and graduate degrees in science, engineering, and technology related fields. The campus is located in the central Rio Grande valley city of Socorro, New Mexico, south of Albuquerque. The City of Socorro has a population of 9,000. New Mexico Tech has a student population of approximately 2,000 and a staff/faculty population of 1000.

15.2 New Mexico Tech is a world leader in many areas of research, including hydrology, astrophysics, atmospheric physics, geophysics, homeland security, information technology, geosciences, energetic materials engineering, and petroleum recovery. The main campus is 101 acres of administrative and academic buildings, residence halls, and research facilities. The remainder of the campus is 1,888 acres. The New Mexico Tech website is http://www.nmt.edu

16. STATEMENT OF WORK

16.1 General requirements

16.1.1 Invoicing: the contractor must have the capability of issuing multiple invoices and bill directly to each department. New Mexico Tech’s payment terms are Net 30, but terms which include a discount will always be accepted. Each invoice shall reference the Direct Payment (DP) or Purchase Order (PO) number.

16.1.2 Ordering Authority: each department will issue either a Direct Payment (DP) or Purchase Order (PO) when printing and/or delivery services are required. Until a DP or PO is issued for a project, no work may be accomplished by the contractor. If this procedure is not followed, the contractor is assuming the risk of non-payment.

16.1.3 Procurement Card: if a DP or PO is not used, the New Mexico Tech department may use their procurement card as a form of payment for services up to $1000. Only projects for that department may be charged to their card, and the card shall not be used to pay an invoice against a DP or PO.

16.1.4 Quality: New Mexico Tech expects the highest level of quality from the contractor. Some pieces may be damaged in the printing process due to jamming, tearing, end of roll, etc. These damaged pieces, shall be reprinted and provided at no additional cost to New Mexico Tech. The contractor must identify, separate and reprint these damaged documents.

16.1.5 Overruns: New Mexico Tech has the option to accept or reject any overruns on a particular project. Overruns shall not exceed ten percent (10%).

16.1.6 Security: as an educational Institution, New Mexico Tech has a broad array of materials that may be subject to printing, and as such, all materials to be printed must be kept secure throughout the process. The contractor shall comply with Payment Card Industry Data Security Standards (PCI DSS), Health Insurance and Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), Federal Information Security Management Act (FISMA), etc. Rejected overruns, damaged documents, scrap and waste from any print job must be destroyed by shredding which will render the documents unreadable. Any breach shall be reported immediately to New Mexico Tech. Any subcontractors used by the contractor shall also be required to maintain security of all materials.

16.1.7 Files: all files provided to the contractor are the property of New Mexico Tech with the exception of those from the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA).
16.1.8 Mailing Services: the contractor shall prepare all mailing in accordance with USPS requirements and deliver them to the appropriate USPS bulk mail facility. These duties include address imprinting; mailing list/NCOA processing; bulk rate non-profit permit; 1st class; foreign mail; and bulk rate. The contractor will be provided with the New Mexico Tech bulk rate information.

Delivery/shipping: Not all contractors will be able to offer both printing and delivery services, so New Mexico Tech anticipates multiple awards to ensure redundancy and coverage.

Minimum printing levels: New Mexico Tech will not entertain offers that require a minimum level of printing per year.

16.2 Tables 1-10 provides a few examples of the types of printing required by our main campus. The requirements run from simple business cards and stationery to more detailed four color books and brochures. The Offeror should be prepared to offer all types of printing related services besides those shown in all tables. The following list of additional services is not all inclusive:

- Alterations
- Proofs must be acceptable in various formats such as PDF, laser, imposition, contract
- Press checks
- Files acceptable in the following formats: InDesign, PC, Mac, High resolution PDFs, etc.
- Binding – perfect, fold, staple, trim, score, coil
- Finish/coating – uncoated, coated, dull, gloss, matt, aqueous, varnish (spot or flood), UV coating
- Inks – black, PMS/Pantone (1, 2, 3, 4 +), CMYK, CMYK plus 1 or 2 PMS, vegetable and soy ink
- A variety of weights for paper used for both cover and text
- Colored paper
- Packaging: shrink wrap, band, carton pack
- Banners, signs, and other graphics
- Student course packs
- DVDs and labels for the DVDs

16.3 Table 11 provides printing requirements for the Energetic Materials Research and Testing Center (EMRTC) which has very specific printing and delivery requirements. The course materials listed require printing, finishing, assembly, packaging and shipping to various locations throughout the United States. A sample list of those locations is included in Table 11. Some of the material will be delivered directly to New Mexico Tech’s Socorro campus for classes which are scheduled throughout the year. The selected contractor must be able to print in the quantity needed and provide timely delivery for these classes. The material to be printed is sensitive in nature, and the selected contractor must provide assurances to New Mexico Tech that the employees of the contractor will treat the materials accordingly.

For the purpose of evaluating the Offers to determine the best responsive, responsible Offer, New Mexico Tech shall use the following pricing matrix for common print work and delivery based on 10,000,000 copies. For additional pricing for items not covered in the tables, the Offeror should provide their published price list.

Furthermore, the state agency or local public body shall void an executed contract or cancel a solicitation or proposed award for a proposed contract if: 1) a prospective contractor, a family member of the prospective contractor, or a representative of the prospective contractor gives a campaign contribution or other thing of value to an applicable public official or the applicable public official’s employees during the pendency of the procurement process or 2) a prospective contractor fails to submit a fully completed disclosure statement pursuant to the law.
