Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is generally more accurate than (b) if pay at the lower paying job is more than half of the pay at the higher paying job. Otherwise, (b) is more accurate <input type="checkbox"/>
TIP: If you have self-employment income, see page 2.

Complete Steps 3–4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3–4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2023 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2022 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2023. You had no federal income tax liability in 2022 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2022 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27, 28, and 29), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2023 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 15, 2024.

Your privacy. If you have concerns with Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b); if you have concerns with Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c).

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay income and self-employment taxes through withholding from your wages, you should enter the self-employment income on Step 4(a). Then compute your self-employment tax, divide that tax by the number of pay periods remaining in the year, and include that resulting amount per pay period on Step 4(c). You can also add half of the annual amount of self-employment tax to Step 4(b) as a deduction. To calculate self-employment tax, you generally multiply the self-employment income by 14.13% (this rate is a quick way to figure your self-employment tax and equals the sum of the 12.4% social security tax and the 2.9% Medicare tax multiplied by 0.9235). See Pub. 505 for more information, especially if the sum of self-employment income multiplied by 0.9235 and wages exceeds $160,200 for a given individual.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work.

If you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is roughly accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2023 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Step 2(b) — Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job. To be accurate, submit a new Form W-4 for all other jobs if you have not updated your withholding since 2019.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables.

- 1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3 1 $ _____
- 2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.

 - b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 and enter this amount on line 2b 2b $ _____
 - c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c 2c $ _____
- 3 Enter the number of pay periods per year for the highest paying job. For example, if that job pays weekly, enter 52; if it pays every other week, enter 26; if it pays monthly, enter 12, etc. 3 _____

Step 4(b) — Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

- 1 Enter an estimate of your 2023 itemized deductions (from Schedule A (Form 1040)). Such deductions may include qualifying home mortgage interest, charitable contributions, state and local taxes (up to $10,000), and medical expenses in excess of 7.5% of your income 1 $ _____
- 2 Enter:

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • $27,700 if you're married filing jointly or a qualifying surviving spouse • $20,800 if you're head of household • $13,850 if you're single or married filing separately 	}

- 3 If line 1 is greater than line 2, subtract line 2 from line 1 and enter the result here. If line 2 is greater than line 1, enter "-0-" 3 $ _____
- 4 Enter an estimate of your student loan interest, deductible IRA contributions, and certain other adjustments (from Part II of Schedule 1 (Form 1040)). See Pub. 505 for more information 4 $ _____
- 5 Add lines 3 and 4. Enter the result here and in Step 4(b) of Form W-4 5 $ _____

Drug Abuse Policy

The Drug Free Workplace Act of 1988 requires that all institutions receiving federal contracts of $ 25,000 or more, and all institutions receiving federal grants, provide their employees with a drug free workplace. Department of Defense regulations require that contractors establish procedures to ensure a drug free work force. The regents and the administration of New Mexico Tech support these requirements. They accept the challenge to maintain for all students and employees a safe and healthy environment. They intend to adhere to both the spirit and letter of the regulations by implementing and enforcing this drug policy. The regents and administration of New Mexico Tech are committed to protecting the rights of all students and employees. In keeping with the mission of New Mexico Tech, emphasis is given to education as a primary vehicle for reducing to zero the use of illegal drugs and the abuse of other drugs. Further, the regents and administration support and encourage research aimed at understanding drug effects and drug abuse and at developing effective treatment methods. All employees must comply with this drug policy and respects the rights of their fellow employees.

Rules Regarding Drugs

The New Mexico Tech Drug Policy prohibits the following:

1. Manufacture, distribution, dispensation, possessions, sale, purchase, or use of illegal drugs on Tech premises or business, or in Tech vehicles, or during work hours.
2. Storing and illegal drug in locker, desk, vehicle, or other repository on Tech premises.
3. Being under the influence of an illegal drug on Tech premises or business, or in Tech vehicles, or during work hours. Being “under the influence” of an illegal drug is defined as testing positive at a specific mg/kg level.
4. Switching or adulterating and urine or blood sample submitted for testing.
5. Refusal to consent to testing when required by this policy.
6. Failure on the part of an employee to report to the employee’s supervisor warnings by a physician that certain job should not be attempted while taking a prescribed drug.
7. failure on the part of an employee to notify the Human Resources Office within 5 days of a conviction under and criminal drug for a violation occurring on Tech premises.

Compliance

All employees must comply with this drug policy.

Employee Drug Abuse Awareness Program

An educational program is being developed. This program will make I possible to inform students, employees, and their families about 1) the effects of illegal drug abuse, 2) the provisions of this drug policy, 3) signs and symptoms of drug abuse, and 4) the availability of treatment for those who seek it. Materials concerning drug abuse and drug effects will be available to all employees and their families. Education about the effects of drugs and drug abuse will be accomplished in many ways. Among these are:

1. Materials on drug abuse will be included in academic courses where appropriate.
2. Special courses and seminars will be given and employees will be allowed time off to attend these offerings.
3. An employee assistance program (EAP) (see "Employee Assistance" on following page) will be able to answer questions about drug abuse and about this policy. The EAP will also be able to refer employees and students to other resources for assistance.
4. The library will make available books, journals, magazines, and cassettes, videotapes, and special publications giving information on drug abuse, treatment and rehabilitation programs, employees' right to a drug free workplace, and laws regarding drug use and abuse. The library will also make this policy available.
5. The Human Resources Office will distribute widely and make available, at several locations, lists of all illegal drugs.
6. Supervisory instruction will be provided on how to recognize when drugs may be contributing to a decline in performance or erratic employee behavior on the job.

Employee Assistance

The New Mexico Tech Employee Assistance Program's aim is to help employees who seeking help with drug related problems or have been referred by their supervisors because of declining performance or erratic on-the-job behavior. This program will help employees and students find treatment or counseling whenever it is feasible to do so. Referral to or consultation with the employee Assistance Program is never mandatory nor a continued employment. The employee has primary responsibility for voluntarily seeking assistance when it is needed.

The Employee Benefit Plan provides some coverage for treatment or drug problems. Also, a variety of leave forms, paid and unpaid, may be available for employees receiving treatment for drug problems.

Employees who have drug problems are urged to seek help. They can contact the Employee Assistance Program without the permission or the knowledge of their supervisors. Assistance will be provided on a confidential basis. The continued work at Tech of employees who seek such assistance will NOT be jeopardized because they seek help.

Employees who pursue treatment voluntarily or as a result for referral by the Employee Assistance Program and who continue to work at Tech must meet all established standards of conduct and job performance and comply with this drug policy.

Drug Testing

The Department of Defense requires contractors to perform unannounced random drug test for employees in sensitive positions on DOD contracts. This will be carried out in the following way. At least once a year, a day will be selected at random by the president of New Mexico Tech. Confidential Arrangements will be made with the firm carrying out the testing. On that day, all employees in sensitive positions will be considered eligible for testing. A random sample consisting of 10 to 50 percent of those eligible will be tested. The actual sample percent size and the method of random selection will be determined each year by the president of New Mexico Tech. Offers of employment and promotions and transfers to sensitive positions are conditional on testing drug free.

Employees must sign a consent form provided by the Human Resources Officer prior to the administration of any drug test authorizing the testing. Refusal to sign this consent form could result in disciplinary action, including termination of employment.

Testing will be conducted in strict accordance with the Mandatory Guidelines for Federal Drug Testing Programs issued by the Department of Health and Human Services. Sample collection will be conducted at a designated facility selected by Human Resources. Employees who are tested will be given the opportunity to submit any information that may have an effect, such as a false positive, on their test results. Competent medical personnel will evaluate this information. If it is determined that the employee's justification for a positive test result is sufficient that test will be declared void. Employees who test positive for illegal drugs may request a second test to be made of that specimen, and will be given the opportunity to explain the test results. A positive test is defined as a specimen that tests positive on the initial immunoassay and is confirmed positive by using gas chromatography/mass spectrometry techniques.

In addition to performing the random drug testing described above, all New Mexico Tech Hoist Operators will receive a mandatory unannounced annual drug test. This test will be administered under the same standards described above.

Sanctions for Violating the Drug Policy

Any employee working in a sensitive position who is found in violation of the policy will not be permitted to remain working in a sensitive position. The EMRTC Security Officer will notify the Department of Defense of violations by the employees working in sensitive positions.

Any employee who knowingly violates or refuses to comply with the policy may be subject to immediate and serve disciplinary action that may include, but is not limited to, termination. This determination is made solely by the president of New Mexico Tech or his designated officer. All of the protection accorded by New Mexico Tech's grievance policies and other human resources policies are available to persons so disciplined.

Acknowledgement of Receipt of Policy

All employees of New Mexico Tech will sign a statement acknowledging that they have received a copy of the Policy and have read and understood the policy. Employees are expected to comply with the provisions of this policy.

E-VERIFY PARTICIPATION BY NEW MEXICO TECH

Federal law requires all employers to verify the identity and employment eligibility of all persons, newly hired and presently employed under a Federal Contract and subcontract, using the E-Verify Internet Based System.

E-Verify is an Internet-based system operated by the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) in partnership with the Social Security Administration (SSA) that allows participating employers, of which New Mexico Institute of Mining and Technology has chosen to participate, to electronically verify the employment eligibility of their newly hired employees. U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS administers the program.

The program provides participating employers an automated Internet-based resource to verify the employment eligibility of newly hired employees. Participating employers run authorization checks on all newly hired employees, including U.S. citizens and non-U.S citizens, against SSA and DHS databases (about 449 million, and 60 million records respectively). Through this process, E-Verify assists employers in maintaining a legal workforce and protects jobs for authorized U.S. workers.

New Mexico Tech will provide the Social Security Administration (SSA) and the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), with information from each new employee's Form I-9 to confirm work authorization.

IMPORTANT: If the Government cannot confirm that you are authorized to work, this employer is required to provide you written instructions and an opportunity to contact SSA and/or DHS before taking adverse action against you, including terminating your employment.

Employers may not use E-Verify to pre-screen job applicants, and may not limit or influence the choice of documents presented for use on the Form I-9.

If you believe that your employer has violated its responsibilities under this program or has discriminated against you during the verification process based upon your national origin or citizenship status, please call the Office of Special Counsel for Immigration Related Unfair Employment Practices at 1-800-255-7688 (TDD: 1-800-237-2515).

I have read the above policy and have been given the opportunity to ask questions concerning this policy.

HARASSMENT

It is the policy of New Mexico Tech that all employees be able to enjoy a work environment that is free of discrimination and harassment. Harassment of any kind creates an intimidating, hostile and offensive work environment that destroys working relationships and productivity. Harassment refers to behavior that is personally offensive, impairs morale, or interferes with the ability of employees to perform well. Any harassment of an employee or employees by any other employee or employees cannot be tolerated. This policy refers to but is not limited to harassment due to age, race, color, national origin, ancestry, religion, sex, physical or mental disability, medical condition, or veteran status. Harassment includes unsolicited or pictures degrading either to gender or to racial, religious, or ethnic groups. Sexual Harassment includes sexual advances, request for sexual favors, and other conduct that is sexual and offensive. Employees who engage in any of these activities are subject to a disciplinary action that could result in the termination of employment.

Individuals who believe that they have been subjected to harassment should make it clear that such behavior is offensive to them and should not continue. If the offensive behavior does continue, it should be brought to the attention of the employee's supervisor, Director of Affirmative Action and Compliance, the Director of Human Resources or another appropriate manager. Any manager or supervisor made aware of such a harassment incident must promptly inform the Affirmative Action and Compliance Office and the Human Resources Office of such incidents. The Affirmative Action Office will investigate all harassment complaints.

Managers and supervisors are expected to halt any harassment of which they become aware by restating the policy and, when necessary, by more direct disciplinary action.

The above policy has been explained to me, and I have had the opportunity to ask questions about the policy.

INTERNET, E-MAIL AND OTHER ON-LINE SERVICES

Electronic mail (e-mail) is an office communications tool for preparing, sending, and retrieving electronic messages on personal computers. On-line services such as the internet are communications tools for sending and retrieving information and messages on personal computers. These systems are provided for business purposes; use for personal purposes is a privilege and is permissible only within reasonable limits. Use of these systems for conducting a business, exchange of or viewing pornographic materials, or for activities contrary to law or New Mexico Tech policies is prohibited.

All e-mail and internet records are considered to be Institute records and should be transmitted only to individuals who have a business need to receive them. Additionally, as Institute records, e-mail and internet records are subject to disclosure to law enforcement or government officials or to other third parties through subpoena or other process. Employees should always ensure that Institute information contained in e-mail and internet messages by employees may not necessarily reflect the views of New Mexico Tech's officers or directors. Abuse of the e-mail or internet systems, through excessive personal use, or use in violation of Law or New Mexico Tech policies will result in disciplinary action and/or loss of access to New Mexico Tech's computer systems.

While New Mexico Tech does not intend to regularly review employees' e-mail and internet records, employees have no right or exception of privacy in e-mail or internet. New Mexico Tech owns the computer and software making up the e-mail and internet systems and permits employees to use them in the performance of their duties for the Institute. E-mail messages and internet records are to be treated like shared paper files, with the expectation that anything in them is available for review by authorized representatives of the Institute. Employee e-mail messages and internet records may be disclosed to law enforcement or government officials or to other third parties, without notification to or permission from the employee sending or receiving the messages and records.

Employees should also be aware that log-on and other passwords may not be shared with any third party, nor may they be shared with another employee, unless such password(s) is requested by an authorized officer of the Institute.

The Above policy has been explained to me and I have had the opportunity to ask questions about the policy.

New Health Insurance Marketplace Coverage Options and Your Health Coverage

Form Approved
OMB No. 1210-0149
(Expires 6-30-2023)

PART A: General Information

When key parts of the health care law take effect in 2014, there will be a new way to buy health insurance: the Health Insurance Marketplace. To assist you as you evaluate options for you and your family, this notice provides some basic information about the new Marketplace and employment-based health coverage offered by your employer.

What is the Health Insurance Marketplace?

The Marketplace is designed to help you find health insurance that meets your needs and fits your budget. The Marketplace offers "one-stop shopping" to find and compare private health insurance options. You may also be eligible for a new kind of tax credit that lowers your monthly premium right away. Open enrollment for health insurance coverage through the Marketplace begins in October 2013 for coverage starting as early as January 1, 2014.

Can I Save Money on my Health Insurance Premiums in the Marketplace?

You may qualify to save money and lower your monthly premium, but only if your employer does not offer coverage, or offers coverage that doesn't meet certain standards. The savings on your premium that you're eligible for depends on your household income.

Does Employer Health Coverage Affect Eligibility for Premium Savings through the Marketplace?

Yes. If you have an offer of health coverage from your employer that meets certain standards, you will not be eligible for a tax credit through the Marketplace and may wish to enroll in your employer's health plan. However, you may be eligible for a tax credit that lowers your monthly premium, or a reduction in certain cost-sharing if your employer does not offer coverage to you at all or does not offer coverage that meets certain standards. If the cost of a plan from your employer that would cover you (and not any other members of your family) is more than 9.5% of your household income for the year, or if the coverage your employer provides does not meet the "minimum value" standard set by the Affordable Care Act, you may be eligible for a tax credit.¹

Note: If you purchase a health plan through the Marketplace instead of accepting health coverage offered by your employer, then you may lose the employer contribution (if any) to the employer-offered coverage. Also, this employer contribution—as well as your employee contribution to employer-offered coverage—is often excluded from income for Federal and State income tax purposes. Your payments for coverage through the Marketplace are made on an after-tax basis.

How Can I Get More Information?

For more information about your coverage offered by your employer, please check your summary plan description or contact BlueCross Blue Shield: 1.888.966.7742, Cigna: 1.800.244.6224 or Presbyterian Health Plan: 1.888.275.7737.

The Marketplace can help you evaluate your coverage options, including your eligibility for coverage through the Marketplace and its cost. Please visit BeWellNM.com or HealthCare.gov for more information, including an online application for health insurance coverage and contact information for a Health Insurance Marketplace in your area.

¹ An employer-sponsored health plan meets the "minimum value standard" if the plan's share of the total allowed benefit costs covered by the plan is no less than 60 percent of such costs.

PART B: Information About Health Coverage Offered by Your Employer

This section contains information about any health coverage offered by your employer. If you decide to complete an application for coverage in the Marketplace, you will be asked to provide this information. This information is numbered to correspond to the Marketplace application.

Natural Child, Step-Child, Legally Adopted Child (or a child placed with the Employee in anticipation of adoption), Foster Child, or a Child from whom the Employee is a Legal Guardian; up to the Age of 26.

- ☐ We do not offer coverage.

- ☒ If checked, this coverage meets the minimum value standard, and the cost of this coverage to you is intended to be affordable, based on employee wages.

 Even if your employer intends your coverage to be affordable, you may still be eligible for a premium discount through the Marketplace. The Marketplace will use your household income, along with other factors, to determine whether you may be eligible for a premium discount. If, for example, your wages vary from week to week (perhaps you are an hourly employee or you work on a commission basis), if you are newly employed mid-year, or if you have other income losses, you may still qualify for a premium discount.

If you decide to shop for coverage in the Marketplace, BeWellNM.com or HealthCare.gov will guide you through the process. Here's the employer information you'll enter when you visit BeWellNM.com or HealthCare.gov to find out if you can get a tax credit to lower your monthly premiums.

IMPORTANT HEALTH, DENTAL AND VISION INSURANCE INFORMATION

Regular, regular limited term, and full time temporary employees are eligible to participate in the New Mexico Tech health, dental, and vision plans. New Mexico Tech pays the larger portion of the premiums and the employee pays a portion – those amounts are explained in the NMPSIA information packet. In order to obtain coverage, the employee must select the plan(s) most beneficial for him/her and must complete the enrollment form in the packet as soon as possible but not later than 31 days after starting work.

Deductions for premiums will be made as soon after the employee enrolls as possible. NMPSIA health insurance requires that premiums be paid in advance of the start of coverage. In some cases, depending on the employee start date, double deductions must be made for one pay period in order to have health coverage at the start of the following month.

Example #1: A new employee begins working on March 15th and completes the NMPSIA enrollment that week. A double deduction will be made for health insurance at the next pay period in order to begin coverage on April 1st.

Example #2: A new employee begins working on March 15th and completes the NMPSIA enrollment towards the end of the month. Deductions for health insurance will be made in April at both pay periods but coverage will not begin until May 1st.

Please keep these examples in mind when deciding when to enroll in the health, dental and vision plans. Likewise, if you terminate employment at New Mexico Tech, your health, dental, and vision insurance will terminate at the end of the month in which you terminate regardless of the effective date.
