Learning strategies; teaching practices and structuring classes for student learning and retention

Chelsey Hargather
Assistant Professor of Materials Engineering x5582  chelsey.hargather@nmt.edu

I. General Resources
   b. CamScanner App: https://www.camscanner.com/
   c. Use your U drive!!  //smbhost.nmt.edu

II. Active learning techniques
   a. iClickers
      i. https://www1.iclicker.com/b. Think-Pair-Share
   c. In-class group activities
   d. Review games
      i. Jeopardy, etc
   e. Review problems in Fidel Ballrooms
   f. Flipped classroom
   g. Inquiry/problem based learning
      i. http://www.inquirybasedlearning.org/
   h. Open-ended assignments, problems, or projects
   i. Guided learning activities
      i. http://serc.carleton.edu/sp/pkal/pogil/how.html
   j. Make mistakes
   k. Check out iPads from Academic Center for Technology (ACT)

III. Books and other reading
   c. “What the Best College Teachers Do”, Ken Bain, 0674013255.