

Macey Conference and Performing Arts Center is happy to announce the availability of gallery space! We are currently seeking artists that would like to showcase their works to a grand variety of audiences.

Macey Center has a wide variety of events and activities that vary from national touring performers with audiences from 300 to 600, to first responder training, statewide conferences, weddings and classical music concerts. The Center hosts roughly 150 different events per year and would like to expose your art to this captive audience.

We are currently accepting applications for the Fall of 2020 as well as the 2021 calendar year. Simply complete the application below with a sample of your works that would be featured for review by our committee. Once selected someone from the Macey Center staff will contact you to discuss dates and publicity of your show.

Showcase space features approximately 165 ft of usable wall space with LED track lighting and ample sunlight. Exhibitions are generally on display for four to six weeks with reception space available at no cost. Exhibit space is open Monday through Friday, 8:00-5:00 and as events require.
