

REGISTER FOR Dissertation & Thesis Boot Camp

Get a head start writing your graduate project. Participate in a distraction-free writing space with access to consulting, writing advice, and feedback.

COMM 5080

January 8-12, 2024

10AM - 5PM

Skeen Library 212

COMM 5080, the Dissertation & Thesis Boot Camp, is a 1-credit class that you must register for. You will find COMM 5080 under the Spring 2024 course listings. If you have any questions, please contact Dr. Hayley McCullough at hayley.mccullough@nmt.edu

TO REGISTER FOR COMM 5080:

1. Talk to your advisor about where you are at in your thesis process, 2. Complete the Boot Camp Writing Plan with your advisor, 3. E-mail completed Boot Camp Questionnaire and Writing Plan to hayley.mccullough@nmt.edu by Dec. 15, 4. Register on Banweb

Boot Camp Writing Plan

With your advisor, create a plan for what part of your thesis and dissertation you will complete during Boot Camp. You should plan to have approximately 5-6 hours of writing time a day - please note that the majority of time on Monday (January 8) will be dedicated to workshops and activities about effective writing practices. Describe your plan in the space provided or attach a separate document. Email your Writing Plan to hayley.mccullough@nmt.edu by Dec. 15 as well.