2024 Convocation save the date: Aug. 16

Dear Colleagues,

On Friday, Aug. 16, New Mexico Tech will hold its annual faculty and staff convocation that celebrates significant accomplishments by our peers during the past year and over careers.

I would like to cordially invite every faculty and staff member to attend this event so you can offer your support to your coworkers. The program starts at 1:30 PM at Macey Center, with a reception to follow in the upper lobby.

Convocation shines a spotlight on impressive achievements including:

- Employee milestone years of service
- New retirees
- Recipients of the Distinguished Teaching, Distinguished Service, and Distinguished Research Awards
- Faculty promotion to full professor
- Faculty promotion to tenure and associate professor
- Grant recipients
- New patent holders

Please join me in congratulating our noteworthy associates who help NMT lead education and research in science, technology, engineering, entrepreneurship, and mathematics for New Mexico and beyond.

Warm regards,
Mahyar
